St. Patr

O! blest be the days whe
Sublime o'er the mounta
When her sons, to her glo
Defied the invader to t
When back o'er the main
And gave to religion a When valour and mind to
But where-fore lament
Her star shall shine out w
For ne'er had she childr
As those she now sees on

ick's Day

en the green banner floated ain of free Innisfail;
ory and freedom devoted,
read her soil.
they chased the Dane,
nd learning their spoil;
gether combined,
o'er the glories departed?
with as vivid a ray;
ren so brave and true-hearted,
St. Patrick's Day.

Our Society

ITS OBJECTS

(a)—To foster and perpetuate a sentiment of love and respect for Ireland.

(b)—To cultivate and promote a study of Irish History and current events, songs, music, dances, folk lore, language and anything pertaining to Irish Art.

(c)—To celebrate in a befitting manner every year March 17th in commemoration of the Patron Saint of the Society.

(d)—To commemorate in a befitting manner the death of Ireland's Martyrs on the anniversary of the death of Terence McSwiney.

(e)—To promote a friendly intercourse among the people of Irish birth and sentiment in the City of Calgary. The Society is non-sectarian and non-political in its scope and operation.

ARTICLE 5—Membership

Any person of Irish birth or extraction will be eligible for membership.

(a)—The membership of the Society shall consist of Regular and Associate Members.

(b)—Regular Members shall comprise ladies and gentlemen of the age of 18 years and upwards.

(c)—Associate Members shall be boys and girls from ages 12 to 18 years.

(d)—Any person who has performed a special service to the Society or to the Irish people in their struggle for freedom, and who are not eligible under Article 5, shall be admitted as an honorary member.
